QUEERING PARADIGMS 7

11-12 June 2016, 9am – 6pm

Abstract: Keynote panel I Queer Human Rights

Introductory Talk

Leonardo Raznovich (INCISE, Canterbury Christ Church University, UK), Queer Aggression? The 'unorthodoxy' of Human Rights claims in the Caymans Islands

In this talk I share the trials and tribulations of my own Human Rights challenges in the Cayman Islands and discuss the question of whether the queer struggle for legal and cultural change can ever be called 'unorthodox' and/or 'aggressive'.

Keynote

Eugenio Raúl Zaffaroni (Justice of the Inter American Court of Human Rights), Criminal prosecution of 'sexual orientation' and its effect on the mental health of the society

1. Sexuality has a fundamental importance in the development of someone's personality. 2. Repression of sexual orientation of a person leads to personality disorders. 3. Personality disorder translates into neurosis and, consequently, in errors of conduct in the society. 4. These neurotic behaviors affect people who suffer those consequences that are conditioned by prejudice and repression of their sexuality. 5. But those people interact in society, thus the consequences are reflected in their interactions. 6. Therefore, the repression of the sexuality of a percentage of the population affects society itself, whose essence is human interaction. 7. In synthesis, the prejudices that conditioned repression on a portion of the society become the cause of deterioration of mental health in the general population. (From there it is possible to derive sexism, domestic violence, homophobia, etc.).

Regardless, we must point out other issues at different levels: the distinction between sin and crime, Enlightenment in criminal law, freedom of conscience, and all we know.

QUEERING PARADIGMS 7

11-12 June 2016, 9am – 6pm

Abstract: Keynote panel II Queer Religion

Introductory Talk

Bee Scherer (INCISE, Canterbury Christ Church University, UK), Queerthinking Religion: New Terms for an Intersectional Dialogue

Both 'Queer' and 'religion' can be used as categories for the projection of identitarian yearning and belonging, and are often constructed as mutually exclusive. Both are problematic; both are contested. In this talk I investigate queer (and) religion using different discursive threads such as Human Rights; ethics; bodily integrity; spirituality; and resistance. 'Religion' is shown to be value-neutral and morally protean. A way forward for a mature, constructive and jouissant relationship of 'queer' and 'religion' emerges in the form of queerthought religion as embodied compassion-in-action.

Keynote

The Rt Rvd Alan Wilson (Bishop of Buckingham), Same-sex marriage and the queering project of Jesus

In this presentation, Bishop Alan will share the UK experience with the introduction of same-sex marriage and describe the impact of changes in the UK marriage practice on both church and state. In the second part of the keynote, Bishop Alan will link this experience to the emerging notion that Queering is an activity mandated by various subversive elements in the teaching of Jesus.
